

2.1: Biblical Insight

Applying the Bible to Business

Why should we learn history? It is a hallway that never ends. Without it, what would govern our decision-making? This week, we study the history of management. We will have the opportunity to gain great understanding and insights from those who came before us. God has given us history to help guide us into the future, allowing us to be wise in our conduct for His purpose.

▶ "The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel: For learning wisdom and discipline; for understanding insightful sayings; for receiving prudent instruction in righteousness, justice, and integrity; for teaching shrewdness to the inexperienced, knowledge and discretion to a young man - let a wise person listen and increase learning, and let a discerning person obtain guidance - for understanding a proverb or a parable, the words of the wise, and their riddles." Proverbs 1:1-7 (CSB) ◀

This page titled 2.1: Biblical Insight is shared under a CC BY 4.0 license and was authored, remixed, and/or curated by Karen Calendo.