

21.A: Review Questions

Complete as directed.

True or False: (Circle Letter)

1. Compliance is the most important thing when implementing safety and health program best practices. T or F
 2. Implementing hazards controls is a basic tenet of industrial hygiene. T or F
 3. Strong management leadership is the highest priority for implementing effective programs. T or F
 4. Reduced operating cost is not a benefit of an effective safety and health program. T or F
 5. Employers need not engage workers when implementing safety and health programs. T or F
 6. Programs must be written to be effective. T or F
 7. The most effective safety and health programs are both documented and assessed. T or F
 8. Setting clear goals for worker safety and health is necessary for an effective program. T or F
 9. The Hazard Communication Program can exist as a standalone health and safety program. T or F
 10. Traditional programs are proactive, nipping problems in the bud before they happen. T or F.
-

This page titled 21.A: Review Questions is shared under a CC BY 4.0 license and was authored, remixed, and/or curated by Kimberly Mosley (ASCCC Open Educational Resources Initiative \(OERI\)) .

- 20.A: Review Questions by Kimberly Mosley is licensed CC BY 4.0.