

23.A: Review Questions-Medical, first-aid and bloodborne pathogens

---

Complete as directed.

True or False: (Circle Letter)

1. Employers are required to render first aid to injured employees. T or F
2. Rendering first aid includes providing for emergency services and response. T or F
3. Only small employers are required to have first aid kits. T or F
4. If employees are exposed to caustics or hazardous materials emergency wash stations must be available. T or F
5. Setting a broken bone is considered first aid. T or F
6. Applying a cold or hot compress is considered medical treatment. T or F
7. An ECP is required of all employers. T or F
8. Employees exposed to OPIM must wear PPE. T or F
9. If an employee refuses hepatitis vaccine the employer does not have to medically monitor the employee. T or F
10. Exposed employees must receive post exposure counseling. T or F.

---

This page titled 23.A: Review Questions-Medical, first-aid and bloodborne pathogens is shared under a CC BY 4.0 license and was authored, remixed, and/or curated by Kimberly Mosley \(ASCCC Open Educational Resources Initiative \(OERI\)\).

- 22.A: Review Questions-Medical, first-aid and bloodborne pathogens by Kimberly Mosley is licensed CC BY 4.0.