

The Future is OPEN

ORGANIZATIONAL BEHAVIOR

I developed a new Organizational Behavior course that will be used in the Business Management program at Western Technical College. This is the first core course in the program and it is designed to introduce students to human behaviors in the workplace. Additionally, effective communication is emphasized throughout the course and students are encouraged to cultivate a growth mindset.

Jamie Hammond
Western Technical College

