5.5: Harker section

In Patterson methods of structure solution, relationships between symmetrically related atoms produce peaks in the Patterson function on certain planes or along certain lines determined by the known crystallographic symmetries. Harker sections are portions of the Patterson map that contain a large proportion of the readily interpretable information because they contain many such Harker peaks (vectors between space-group equivalent atoms).

Contributors

This page titled 5.5: Harker section is shared under a CC BY 4.0 license and was authored, remixed, and/or curated by Online Dictionary of Crystallography via source content that was edited to the style and standards of the LibreTexts platform.